

MVP & User Stories Project
The Chic Geek Communication Board
FEATURES	USER STORIES	REQUIREMENTS / NOTES
1. Volunteer/Role Card	As a volunteer, I want to publish monthly newsletter topics so that team can give ideas or resources	Cards need to be easy to fill up. The format of a form. What I'm working on? Volunteer name (picture) and Role, brief description and notes. Upload picture or document .
	As a volunteer, I want to publish the monthly blog topics so that team knows what is going to be published and can align the communication around it.	Login for internal use only.
	As a volunteer, I want to publish the grants I'm trying to get this month so that team knows if they are or know somebody interested on it.	This cards need to be with standar design all across the communication board, so information is always easy to read.
	As a volunteer, I want to publish the new sponsors so that team knows we need to promote it	The cards will be placed as Kanban board style.
	As a volunteer, I want to publish the new partnership we got so that team knows we need to communicate it.	Send an email to the poster option, to ask more questions or comments
	As a volunteer, I want to publish the monthly speakers event so that team start using their information
	As a volunteer, I want to upload the new volunteer picture and role so that team knows the new team member
	As a volunteer, I want to publish the new role on this current volunteer role so that team follows up the change
	As a volunteer, I want to publish the survey results of the event so that team can read the feedback
	As a volunteer, I want to upload the Social Media Messaging we sent so that the team can watch for it and share in their social media accounts
2. Pillar Landing Page	As a VP, I want to publish monthly accomplishments in my pillar so that the team knows what information to use for their roles	Each Pillar needs their own page: PROGRAMS, COMMUNICATIONS, PARTNERS AND PEOPLE.
	As a manager, I want to publish the event topics so the team can help with speakers suggestions	Separate VP, Manager and Coordinators for easy visualization of the information. Maybe by colors and order in the page.
	As a volunteer, I want to enter the new store products so the team knows we have new shirts	The page needs to have the current volunteers in their pillar and their roles. VP needs to update it in regular basis. There for, easy to update is a most.
	As a manager I want to share the mentorship program mentors so that team knows who is involved with the organization
	As a volunteer manager, I want to publish the blog calendar of this months so that other teams knows when the deadlines are
	As a VP, I want to publish all my team members and roles so that the teams knows who is working under my pillar
	As a VP, I want to publish this month goals in my pillar so that the team knows what to expect and work for

	3. Tanya's Corner	As a Executive Director, I want to publish the Tech workshop in the cities so that the team can assist and take advantage of the volunteering perks	This page is just for the Executive Director. A place to post overall organization information. Information only she has and it's her role to keep the organization informed.
		As a Executive Director, I want to upload the general meetings dates and topics so that the team have a peek without opening their emails	Each information will be a card too.
		As a Executive Director, I want to publish a list of potential sponsors so that the partnership team can approach those contacts	May be cards might need to be arranged by categories.
		As a Executive Director, I want to publish the initiatives by other organizations so that the team put it in their radar to help or join with their roles
	4. Board Page	As a Board member, I want to publish the goals for the next quarter so that the team helps to communicate having our goals in mind	This is a place for the Board to communicate where the organization is moving , the goals and initiatives to communicate.
		As a Committee member, I want to publish what we learn this quarter so that the team walks with us
		As a Board member, I want to publish important information so that the organization learns together
